June, 1991

To the Class of 1991:

As you complete your formal legal education I am certain that your first reaction will be one of overwhelming relief. Your years at law school have no doubt been demanding, but, in that regard, I would like to share a portion of a letter which I recently received from a member of the Class of 1990, who wrote:

"Now that I am practicing, I must say that I am glad that BLS put myself--and others--through such a rigorous curriculum. Without such a sure foundation, practice would indeed be ominous."

Notwithstanding the many demands that were made of you, I hope that you will be leaving the law school with some warm memories, some great friends, and, of course, an appreciation of the legal education you received at Brooklyn. The faculty and I hope that this feeling will continue to grow as you establish yourselves in the profession. I also hope that you found that the faculty did its best to deliver on our promise of an "open door" policy. If, in any instances, we failed to do so, I ask that you be forgiving.

As the years go by, please keep in touch with the law school. The faculty and I look forward to seeing you at various school events--Dean's Day, class reunions, school symposia, alumni luncheons and receptions. We hope you will be loyal alumni of our school and that together we can build upon its growing strength and enhanced reputation.

Best of luck,

HILSA

HILSA is the Hispanic Law Student Association at Brooklyn Law School. HILSA is one of the clubs that reflects some of the diversity that one finds at BLS. Our membership is made up of students who come from different and unique backgrounds. HILSA's primary goals are to serve the BLS student community and to provide a support network for all of its members. HILSA would like to remind all students that they are bienvenidos to any and all of our meetings or events.

Front Row: Margaret Mayora, Irma Ottenwalder, Cristina Andrade, Maria Rodriguez, Orietta Ramierz, John Tapia, Ramon E. Reyes Jr.
Back Row: Natouchka Rampy, Hugo Salazar, Ricardo Velez, Laurie Marin, Fred Arriaga, Walter K. Adams III

IALSA

The Italian-American Law Students Association welcomes all Brooklyn Law School students. It sponsors parties in and out of school, sporting events, and an annual dinner dance, as well as a speakers program. Its goals are social service and the encouragement of greater participation in the legal profession by Italian-Americans.

Front Row: Lori Bienstock, Joanne Matthews, Kosha Kantharia, Sondra Shaievitz, Michelle Maratto
Middle Row: Austrack Fong, Vincent Martinelli, Joseph Ruta, Dawn Orlacchio

PHI DELTA PHI

Phi Delta Phi is the second oldest North American legal fraternal organization in existence. Its goal is to provide a social framework that enables students to integrate into the law school community more easily.
